

New Membership Opportunity!

The Virginia ADR Joint Committee, with the support of The Virginia Bar Association and the Virginia State Bar, opened its membership in 2002 to all members of the VBA and VSB interested in alternative dispute resolution.

For an annual dues payment of $25, here's what members of The Virginia ADR Joint Committee receive:

- Access to practical CLEs on advocacy and techniques in mediation, arbitration and negotiation
- A newsletter with information about recent ADR developments and practice tips
 - Opportunities for networking and mutual assistance
 - Participation in legislative processes

Interested in joining this dynamic group and learning more about the growing field of ADR? If you are not already a member, join today by completing the information on the form below and mailing it with your dues payment to the VBA office, which will be the Committee's administrative base.
